Section 333(1) of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act (“IRDA”) requires a bankrupt to submit to the Official Assignee or the private-trustee-in-bankruptcy (“PTIB”), for the periods specified, an account of all moneys and property received, and used by the bankrupt in the maintenance of himself and/or his family.

A bankrupt who fails to comply with the above shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $200 for every day during which the offence continues after conviction under section 333(2) IRDA.
